

Operate your very own branch of The Bank of Spare Capacity

Now is your chance to be part of the CURRENCY REVOLUTION with the rise of alternative currencies gathering pace along with the acceptance of new methods to fund business growth.

BBX has been a leader in the marketplace since inception in 1993 and is proud to have a strong franchising pedigree allowing it to expand into over 14 countries covering 4 continents.

Our franchisees invariably have either a desire to or experience in running a small business, enjoy sales management and are good motivators and communicators. Depending on the individual strengths a franchisee will choose to build either a Sales or District franchise, which both enjoy the following key benefits:

- Worldwide brand and proven business model
- A product at the forefront of the currency revolution currently taking place
- Earnings 24/7 due to international reach and automated systems
- High profitability and re-sale values

District (Trading) Franchise

A district franchisee is the key person in the area and responsible for the ongoing client management of the accounts involving:

- Establishing a District Branch office
- Building a team of account managers
- Running periodic networking events
- Maximising the clients usage of our currency

Sales Franchise

If you are a great communicator you may be interested in our sales franchise giving you the freedom to run at your own speed, liaising with local businessmen and enrolling them as clients to our community.

If you have management skills as well you are able to build a team within this franchise and create unlimited profit and passive income.
